ABOUT CHUCK

With over 35 years of tech experience, Chuck Palm is a broadcaster, pioneering technology leader, and trusted voice in emerging fields like blockchain, cybersecurity, Artificial Intelligence, and wireless networking. His multifaceted career seamlessly blends technical mastery with a talent for distilling complex concepts into engaging content. Chuck has a quick wit, and is great at the "off the cuff" interview style. He can also be engaged as a fill-in host for talk shows and podcasts.
